

Dogs Can Dance™ and AARF!

Present:

An Introduction to Canine Freestyle with
Judy Gamet

August 21, 2010 - 9:00-11:30am

Location: Agility Acres Recreation Facility
981 Todd Rd, Santa Rosa CA 95407

Intro to Canine Freestyle $45 working team / $20 to audit

This workshop is perfect for both beginners and those with some freestyle experience. Learn warm ups, stretches, three routines, and a cool down massage. Covers basic freestyle moves (content) and how to select music for your dog.

Discover how canine freestyle can be of benefit to other dog sports... and dog therapy teams, too!

Judy Gamet, BS in Dance Education, has been training Rottweilers for over twenty years. She has been choreographing, training, coaching and presenting workshops on the sport of canine freestyle for eight years nationwide. Her background in training comes from the sports of conformation, traditional obedience, rally obedience, tracking, freestyle and Schutzhund. Judy just recently completed the choreography for the movie Doggie Boogie, www.doggieboogiemovie.com, being released later this year.
